

Mass Fatalities Planning and Response for Rural Communities

AWR-232

REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

The West Virginia Center for Threat Preparedness is pleased to announce a tuition-free training opportunity presented by Rural Domestic Preparedness Consortium (RDPC). This training is provided through funding from DHS/FEMA.

LOCATION: MECCA 911 Center 911 Responders Way, Morgantown, WV 26501

DATES: March 27, 2025

TIMES: 8:00am-5:00pm

COST: Free – Student responsible for travel, meals and lodging

HOW TO REGISTER:

Registration is managed online by RDPC. To register, you must first have a FEMA student ID (SID).

A FEMA student ID can be obtained by going to the following website:

<https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid>

After obtaining a FEMA Student ID, you will need to register through RDPC at the following website:

<https://ruraltraining.org/course/AWR-232/?scheduled=true&id=11577>

NOTES:

Travel, meals, and lodging costs are the responsibility of the student*